

Gunners Downed By Scrappy Collegians, 5 to 4

DIMMOCK BATTED HARD BUT IS EFFECTIVE; NED NILES WEAKENS IN FINAL ROUNDS

Matthews' Poor Base Running in Ninth Costs the Gunners Tie Score; French's Hesitation in Making Play Paves Way for Three Scores; Clubs Tied for Second Honors; Game Here Sunday

BY AL WARDEN.

After being blanked without a run or a hit for four innings the Gunners hopped on Sylvester "Ned" Miles, Ogden chuck, and eighth innings with timely effect, Logan nosing out Ogden 5 to 4. Norm Nelson's three-base drive to right field followed by Kennedy's sacrifice fly tallied the run which won the game in the eighth.

Ogden's spurt in her half of the eighth, after one man was out, was into oblivion when Matthews was caught between first and second, after he had singled to left. Peterson opened the final count by grounding out Phillips to Adams. Matthews' drive on a mile-a-minute over the infield and rounded first. Jarvis, in returning the ball to the keyhole, threw the horsehide over Phillips' head and Matthews started for second. He was out. Adams to Phillips. Fallentine crashed out a two-bagger to left field which would have scored Matthews with the tying run. This play enters into the "boneheads" of the game and proved mighty costly to the Gunners. Kilpatrick grounded out, ending all hope for a further rally.

TALLY IN FIRST.
The Gunners broke the ice in the first frame. Matthews singled to center and tallied on Fallentine's home-plate to center field, the longest hit recorded in the Logan park this season.

In the second inning French drove in a triple to right and scored on Peterson's single to left. Ogden tallied one score in the fifth. Her final run of the game. Poor baseball evidently cost the Gunners additional scores. Peterson lived when Archibald kicked his ground ball. Matthews was safe on Nelson's error. Peterson going to second. Fallentine bunted foul on two occasions and with the count two and two at-tempted his third bunt. The ball went foul, which automatically retired his heavy hitting receiver. Kilpatrick popped to Phillips. Kilpatrick staged to center, sending over Clark.

LOGANITES START.
Logan players put their optics on the ball in their half of this frame. Kennedy drew free transportation. Archibald singled to Matthews. Kilpatrick to French which the three batters fielded perfectly. He started to throw to second, hesitated and made a throw to first. Gill beating out the hit. Kennedy going to second. This misplay cost the Gunners two of the three tallies scored in this inning as French could easily have reached second on the throw. Kennedy was safe on Adams' error. Kennedy rounded out and Falck whiffed. Phillips led off with a double in the sixth and tallied on Kennedy's single.

Matthews made one of the greatest throws to the plate ever witnessed in the local diamond in the eighth inning. With Nelson perched on and after he had tripped, Kennedy drove a long fly to deep center which Matthews speared. He threw the ball as a straight line into Fallentine's hands without the ball touching the ground. The throw was a fraction of a second late, however.

Matthews raced more than 30 yards for the ball in the first inning to get Falck's liner with one hand. The hitting of Fallentine and French were big features of the game.

UMPIRE PULLS ONE.
Umpire Stoney pulled one for the book in the seventh. Harry Kilpatrick laid down a bunt to Archibald and was one full stride over first base when Adams received the ball at first. Stoney called Kilpatrick out. Of the five runs tallied by Logan all were earned. Ogden tallied three runs.

Hal Dimmock did the pitching for the Collegians and although he was caught for 13 bingles, including a homer, triple and a double, he kept them well scattered and was especially effective in the late innings of the game.

Niles started out in major league style, but the bingles scored by the Collegians were all hard drives with one exception. Ogden outfielders all cut down other hits with keen feeling.

Ogden's defeat at the hands of the Collegians which puts the teams tied for second place gives the Brigham edge for the championship.

Brigham meets Smithfield Saturday and plays the Gunners in the final game Tuesday on the Ogden field.

Ogden must defeat Logan Sunday in order to remain in the race. A victory for Brigham and a defeat for Ogden would practically eliminate the Gunners from the race.

Logan's spurt has been the talk of the circuit. The Collegians are dangerous contenders and they will journey to Ogden Sunday primed for a regular battle.

MATTY WELL ENOUGH TO PUT OVER STRIKE

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., June 29.—"Big Six" Christy Mathewson, idol of baseball fans the country over, for the first time since he came here three years ago, his life despaired of, walked out to the mound and tossed a perfect strike around the plate, while thousands who had gathered for the occasion, cheered themselves hoarse.

Fully 2000 persons including friends of the great pitcher who had come up here to see for themselves the fruits of the great fight against tuberculosis, that Matty was waged at Kenon, crowded the field. He looked well and gave no sign of having been through his recent illness.

After a procession headed by a band, players on local officials and opened the season. Local officials and band escorted Matty, his wife and Christy, Jr., piloting the car, in which

Victory Over Summits and Ogden Defeat Puts Brigham at Top

BRIGHAM, June 29.—The Brigham Peaches walked into first place here Wednesday by defeating the Smithfield aspirants in a slugfest, 15 to 12, while Ogden was meeting defeat at the hands of the Collegians.

With two more games remaining on the schedule for the first half, one with Smithfield and one with Ogden the local fans are confident that the Peaches will romp home with the bunting.

Extra base hits were features of the game Wednesday. Dorious crashed out a homer into the peach orchards in deep center field for the longest hit ever recorded on the local park. Borstadt and Goodwin also clicked out circuit drives.

Melvor started on the mound for Smithfield, but was replaced by Goodwin who was batted hard. Hall opened the game for Brigham but was jerked in the third in favor of Kenyon.

Tommy Fitzpatrick, formerly with the Gunners, played first base for Smithfield and clicked out three hits. The box score:

they rode, to a point behind the home plate. Matty left the machine and to the lusty cheers of the crowd walked slowly but very firmly to the mound. There he straightened to full height, raised the ball aloft, partly wound up and then rubbed his shoulder—he had been sent in "cold."

As he tossed the ball to the catcher, an ovation was accorded him. The catcher then returned to his position and was driven slowly to centerfield, where he watched the game.

BRICK' OWENS HURT IN GAME AT DETROIT

DETROIT, June 29.—Umpire "Brick" Owens sustained a bad contusion and the ligaments in his left side were torn, when he was struck by a foul tip from Outfielder Veach's bat in the fourth inning of the Chicago-Detroit game here Wednesday.

It was further reported the collar bone was broken but a specialist after an examination said there was no fracture.

Owens will be out of the game for possibly two weeks, it was said.

Billy Evans Says

Supporters of the University of Washington take serious objection to the way Coach Wallis of California has explained the defeat of his crew by Washington.

Take your choice. No draw decision goes.

TO STOP COUGHING AT NIGHT.
A summer bronchial cough keeps not only the sufferer but other members of the family awake. Alfredo Barker, 1061 Avondale, E. Liverpool, O., writes: "I consider it my duty to write and tell the results of Foley's Honey and Tar, which I used for my boy who had been suffering from a bronchial cough for 7 or 8 weeks. Foley's Honey and Tar has done him wonderful good, and I shall always recommend it." It heals and soothes. Sold Everywhere.—Advertisement.

In the midst of much praise that was being bestowed on the Washington crew, Coach Wallis of California took all the joy out of life for that institution, by giving a version of the race that took much of the punch out of the victory.

The California mentor made the statement that the victory of Washington by fifteen lengths was not as decisive as the margin of victory would make it seem. The claim was made that the California crew carried a dead load of one man greater than the Washington crew.

Washington supporters take decided issue with all these claims. From the victor's supporters comes the word that Howell at No. 6 rowed the entire race, that he was not a dead load. They say that Howell did not collapse until the Washington crew had crossed the finish line.

The force of Howell's oar sticking in the water threw him out of his shell then, say the Washingtonians. Seeing the condition of Howell, the California coxswain threw up his hands and the men stopped rowing.

Howell was picked up by a Washington launch and taken to shore. The doctors who examined Howell found no injury and pronounced it complete exhaustion, the Washington backers say.

In order to prove that Washington's big margin of victory was deserved, Washington supporters contend that the clerk of course, the referee and judges are a unit in saying Washington had crossed the line before California stopped rowing.

There you have the Washington side of the much discussed race in which California was so decisively beaten.

Coach Wallis of California, while admitting Washington had a good crew, said the decisive defeat of his
